Columbus, Ohio; March 17, 2010—Cott Systems Inc., a technology solutions innovator of records and case management software, announces the hiring of Cheryl McClellan as their new Director of Sales. Ms. McClellan brings leadership skills and expertise in sales processes and tools that will enable Cott to better serve its customers and to gain new customers across its 19 state operation.

"Cheryl is an excellent addition to the new Cott management team we have been building over the past five years. She fits with our culture, understands our industry, brings strong leadership and experience to our sales area, and will be well-liked by our customers", noted Gary Ross, President, Cott Systems.

Prior to joining Cott Systems, Ms. McClellan served as Director of Sales for Health Logistics Systems – MedFreight, managing a sales team of five people. She had her own sales consulting business and was very successful at assignments in helping other companies develop their sales processes, tools, training and results. Most recently she helped Tech Columbus with their sales efforts.

Ms. McClellan graduated with a B.A. in Journalism from Indiana University, and a Master of Science in Administration from Central Michigan University. She currently serves as the facilitator for the TechColumbus Chief Sales Officer Forum.
